LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Gov. RANDALL

will speak at the Court Room in Janesville, Monday Evening, Oct. 29th.

at 7 o'clock. It is hoped that republicans from the country will attend as generally as possible.

ATTENTION

Wide Awake!

There will be a business meeting of the Wide Awake at the Court Room of the Gazette Office this evening. All are expected to be on hand.

A. B. McLEAN, Captain.

MILTON IN THE FIELD.

There was a very large and enthusiastic republican meeting in Milton last evening, the church, where it was held being crowded to its utmost capacity, and some were unable to gain admission into it. The speakers were J. R. Bennett, H. A. Patterson, C. G. Williams and J. M. Burgess of this city. They were often enthusiastically cheered, and at the close received a vote of thanks for their efforts. The Janesville Wide Awake glee club was also present, and sang several of their best songs, which were heartily applauded, and for which the club received a vote of thanks. The Milton Wide Awake, under the command of Capt. R. F. Fraser, were out in full force, numbering about 50, and exhibited an excellence of drill highly commendable to their commander and themselves. The meeting adjourned with three rousing cheers for Lincoln and Hamilton. The speakers and the glee club were then invited to his house by Joseph Goodrich, and entertained in the generous and open-hearted style characteristic of him. To leave nothing undone, the payment of the expenses incurred by the speakers in going and returning from the village was proffered by the citizens.

Altogether, this meeting was just the thing. It was right in every respect. Milton is preparing for a republican vote worthy of herself, and will do her full share toward making the largest majority ever yet given in the county.

The common council holds its regular meeting this evening.

New York Apples.—E. L. Scofield has a lot of very fine New York apples for sale by the barrel.

The body of George P. Arnold, son of J. E. Arnold of Milwaukee, who was lost in the Lady Elgin, was recovered at Michigan City, and buried yesterday in Milwaukee.

A VEXED QUESTION SETTLED.—In the case of J. V. V. Plato vs. Dennis S. Cady, appealed from the Milwaukee circuit court, the supreme court have just decided that a conveyance by the owner of a house upon leased land, acquired by him and his family for a residence, is valid without the signature of the wife.

THE PROSPECT IN ILLINOIS.—Hon. D. Eastman, county judge of Kane county, Ill., whose opportunities for obtaining political information are first rate, writing to his wife, now visiting in this city, under date of the 22d inst., says: "Of course the Badgers are rejoicing over the republican triumphs in Hosiendorf and elsewhere. Say to them that Snickerdunk will do as well, or better, and that they can safely hurry before hand over our intended victory."

THE TAZEWELL COUNTY TRAGEDY.—The late murder of the wife and daughters of Mr. Orendorf, on Delavan Prairie, Tazewell county, continues to excite the popular mind of that region. The young man Ott, confessed having a suspicion last week, Green, residing in the neighborhood, and the sheriff immediately arrested Green, and both the murderers are now in jail at Pekin, and the excitement among the people is so high that it is feared that they will take the scoundrels out of jail by force and lynch them.

The Peoria Transcript says the object of the murder was evidently plunder. It seems last fall, a man by the name of Green went to Indiana, and from what could be learned had no particular business there and formed an acquaintance with Ott, telling him that he was married and had property. A few days before the murder, Orendorf had several thousand dollars in the house, but had brought it to Peoria for safe keeping. The murderers therefore got but little money for their crime.

HORRIBLE ACCIDENT.—An correspondent of the Lexington (Tenn.) Dispatch, writing from Decaturville, in the same state under date of Oct. 14th, says:

"Some negroes were passing the road leading from this place to Ferryville, this morning, near Rushing's creek, they were attracted by the cries of a female, and upon examination found near the road a woman lying by the fire with her husband, both confined by a leg across them. It appears that they were traveling and had stopped to camp, and had built their fire near a dead tree, which caught fire, (after they had fallen asleep), and burned off near the ground feet angling across them, breaking both the woman's legs just below the knee, and killing the man almost instantly. When interrogating the woman, we learned that the tree had fallen across them several hours before, and that her husband lived long enough to tell her what to do after he was dead. She said she called until she could call no longer, for some one to come to her relief after her husband died, (not being able to extricate herself). She also stated that her maiden name was Watts, and that her husband's name was Jefferson Kelley—that they had been married about three months, and were going across Tennessee river where corn was cheaper.

When we reached the place where the unfortunate persons were, we learned that the scene was most horrible, and the cries of the poor woman when taken away from her dead husband were enough to melt the most obdurate heart.

HERBERT INGRAM'S FUNERAL.—We learn from the London correspondence of the New York World, that the funeral of the late Herbert Ingram, who was lost on the Lady Elgin, occurred on the 5th inst., at Boston, England. The scene was a remarkable one. Some eighteen or twenty thousand persons formed the funeral procession, and not a single place of business in the town was open.

The Dirge of the Doomed.

There's a dirge being sung from a gloom's stronghold, As coming events are shadows foretold, That wailing sounds the dirge of the fallen, Scatter king, Where the "Wide Awake" crew has routed king.

The breeze that sing through the forests of Maine, Make the old woods tremble a HAMILTON's fair fame, And the Granite Boys join in the dirge of the fallen, While the Democracy's dirge is being sung.

The Green Mountain State—the land of my birth, And the Bay State rejoice at my "last of earth," And wailing and doleful wail in the night, While I, all alone, take the dirge of the fallen.

The Harbors and the Sails of the old Empire State Are old in days mourning, bewailing my fate; No more I am alone, but poor Break and Lane, For the dirge King Stone re-echoes our death song again.

The Buckeyes and Hoosiers and Suckers are out, And the Wisconsin join in the Republican shout, The Buckeyes and Hoosiers, and all free state folks, And their batteries scold the sovereignty ship.

The fire-brave boys, who of yore were my pride, At Charleson got mixed—when democracy died, Are now shrieking for Bell, for Houston or Bruck, For the Baltimore clique broke democracy's neck.

An "honest old fellow" the republicans found, Whose cost tells, they say, are some ways from the ground, Who can fill the Big Chair, and his feet touch the floor, When deck-legged Buggy must sit in the corner.

Alas! for the hopes I have cherished so long, Alas! that the hobby I mounted so strong, Alas! that I am the compromise knave, Which must me divide on the Democratic wave.

My Kansas-Kentucky has withered away, And the friends of the squatter must go to decay, With no one to heed the small giant's behest, And no Abraham's mantle where he can rest.

Young men of the west this lesson I give, The republican party forever must live, Join the Wide Awake boys, and come at their call, And Freedom shall perch on democracy's wall.

Then "honest old fellow" in the White House shall stay, As democracy's war-logs startling away, While the Buck, and the Bear, and the Dog, and the Pig, From the cess-pool of traitors, shall breathe their farewell.

FORN EXAMINATION OF LINCOLN'S ADMINISTRATION.—The Philadelphia Press closes an editorial article as follows:

"If Mr. Lincoln's election is inevitable, wise and courageous statesmen should see that his administration has a fair trial;—and if the apprehensions of his enemies in the south are realized, there will be but one party to put him down, and that will be the party of the Union, in every state of the Union. If these apprehensions are disappointed and disproved by his action, we shall witness such an overthrow of disunionists and secessionists as will exterminate the breed forever."

Phoenix Insurance Co. of Hartford.

We take pleasure in directing the attention of property-holders to the statement of the Phoenix Insurance Company, published in another column. This we consider one of the most reliable Insurance Companies in the country; and we think no one need have the least hesitancy in effecting an insurance in it. Their exhibit shows conclusively of its reliability. No one owning property should go without an insurance, and to such we recommend them to call on the agent and at once effect an insurance.—Home Journal, Ind.

Continental Insurance Company.

This prosperous corporation, in order to meet its present and growing wants, has just completed the purchase of the desirable property known as No. 102 Broadway and No. 1 Pine street. Possession will be given on or before the 1st of May next, when we learn a new and beautiful structure will at once be erected, suited to the requirements of the Company. No institution of a similar character in the nation, all things considered, can boast of such an unparalleled prosperity as can this. Commencing with a cash capital of half a million of dollars, it has steadily and rapidly grown, until its available assets now amount to about one million. The officers and directors are known all over the country as among the leading influential business men and capitalists of this city. No better, safer, or stronger Insurance Company exists than the Continental. May it live and grow a thousand years, and continue to pay fat dividends.—New York Independent.

To the Public.

"Now is the accepted time"—to-morrow may be too late—delays are dangerous.—Have you got a store of goods? Have you a dwelling house? Have you any insurable property? Go at once to Dimock's Agency and have it insured. Do not let the melancholy words "he had no insurance" prove applicable to your case in event of a sweeping fire.

It is greatly to the credit of any owner or occupant of a building, to have placed conspicuously over his door, any of the following leading companies' house plates. The Home of New York. The Phoenix of Hartford. The Continental of New York. The Security of New York. The Merchants of Hartford, or the Northern of London, England. Is your credit at the Banks getting below par, up with one of these plates and you are all right at the Rock County, the Central or at Hoyt's.—Every passer-by will say "there is a sound business man." Tell your New York creditors that you insure your lake freight in the reliable Old Home, and your goods after their arrival in any of these incomparable companies and your orders will be at all times he filled, and at the lowest figures. A few more of these ornamental plates left at Dimock's Agency.

I desire to call the attention of the citizens of Janesville and Rock county, more in detail to these well known, reliable, and prompt paying

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.
will speak at the Court Room in Janesville, Monday Evening, Oct. 29th, at 7 o'clock. It is hoped that republicans from the country will attend as generally as possible.

ATTENTION
Wide Awake!
There will be a business meeting of the Wide Awake at the Counting Room of the Gazette Office this evening. All are expected to be on hand.
A. B. McLEAN, Captain.

MILTON IN THE FIELD.—There was a very large and enthusiastic republican meeting in Milton last evening, the church, where it was held being crowded to its utmost capacity, and some were unable to gain admission into it. The speakers were J. R. Bennett, H. A. Patterson, C. G. Williams and J. M. Burgess of this city. They were often enthusiastically cheered, and at the close received a vote of thanks for their efforts. The Janesville Wide Awake glee club was also present, and sang several of their best songs, which were heartily applauded, and for which the club received a vote of thanks. The Milton Wide Awake, under the command of Capt. R. F. Fraser, were out in full force, numbering about 50,
and exhibited an excellence of drill highly commendable to their commander and themselves. The meeting adjourned with three rousing cheers for Lincoln and Hamlin. The speakers and the glee club were then invited to his house by Joseph Goodrich, and entertained in the generous and open-hearted style characteristic of him.
To leave nothing undone, the payment of the expenses incurred by the speakers in going and returning from the village was proffered by the citizens.

Altogether, this meeting was just the thing. It was right in every respect. Milton is preparing for a republican vote worthy of herself, and will do her full share toward making the largest majority ever yet given in the county.

The common council holds its regular meeting this evening.

NEW YORK APPLES.—E. L. Scofield has
a lot of very fine New York apples for sale by the barrel.

The body of George P. Arnold, son of J. E. Arnold of Milwaukee, who was lost in the Lady Elgin, was recovered at Michigan City, and buried yesterday in Milwaukee.

A VEXED QUESTION SETTLED.—In the case of J. V. V. Platto vs. Dennis S. Cady, appealed from the Milwaukee circuit court, the supreme court have just decided that a conveyance by the owner of a house upon leased land, acquired by him and his family for a residence, is valid without the signature of the wife.

THE PROSPECT IN ILLINOIS.—Hon. D.
Eastman, county judge of Kane county, Ill., whose opportunities for obtaining political information are first rate, writing to his wife, now visiting in this city, under date of the 22d inst., says: "Of course the Badgers are rejoicing over the republican triumphs in Hosiendorf and elsewhere. Say to them that Sackerdoll will do as well, or better, and that they can safely hurry before hand over our intended victory."

Phoenix Insurance Co. of Hartford.
We take pleasure in directing the attention of property-holders to the statement of the Phoenix Insurance Company, published in another column. This we consider one of the most reliable Insurance Companies in the country; and we think no one need have the least hesitancy in effecting an insurance in it. Their exhibit shows consistently the reliability of the company.
Property should without an insurance, and to such we recommend them to call on the agent and at once effect an insurance.
Home Journal, Ind.

Continental Insurance Company.
This prosperous corporation, in order to meet its present and growing wants, has just completed the purchase of the desirable property known as No. 102 Broadway and No. 1 Pine street. Possession will be given on or before the 1st of May next, when we learn a new and beautiful structure will at once be erected, suited to the requirements of the Company. No insitu-ation of a similar character in the nation, all things considered, can boast of such an unparalleled property as can this. Commencing with a cash capital of half a million of dollars, it has steadily and rapidly grown, until its available assets now amount to about one million. The officers and directors are known all over the country as among the leading influential business men and capitalists of this city. No better, safer, or stronger Insurance Company exists than the Continental. May it live and grow a thousand years, and continue to pay fat dividends.—New York Independent.

To the Public.
"Now is the accepted time"—to-morrow may be too late—delays are dangerous.—
Have you got a store of goods? Have you a dwelling house? Go at once to Dimock's Agency and have it insured. Do not let the melancholy words "he had no insurance" prove applicable to your case in event of a sweeping fire.

Nothing like it to restore a doubtful credit.
It is greatly to the credit of any owner or occupant of a building to have placed conspicuously over his door, any of the following leading companies' house plates. The Home of New York. The Phoenix of Hartford. The Continental of
New York. The Security of New York.
The Merchants of Hartford, or the Northern of London, England. Is your credit at the Banks getting below par, up with one of these plates and you are all right at the Rock County, the Central or at Hoyt's.— Every passer-by will say "there is a sound business man." Tell your New York creditors that you insure your lake freight in the reliable Old Home, and your goods after their arrival in any of these incomparable companies and your orders will at all times be filled, and at the lowest figures.
A few more of these ornamental plates left at Dimock's Agency.

I desire to call the attention of the citizens of Janesville and Rock county, more in detail to these well known, reliable and prompt paying

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Gov. RANDALL
will speak at the Court Room in Janesville, Monday Evening, Oct. 29th,
at 7 o'clock. It is hoped that republicans
possible.

ATTENTION
Wide Awake!
There will be a business meeting of the Wide Awake at the Counting Room of the Gazette Office this evening. All are expected to be on hand.

A. B. McLEAN, Captain.
MILTON IN THE FIELD.—There was a very large and enthusiastic republican meeting in Milton last evening, the church,
where it was held being crowded to its utmost capacity, and some were unable to
J. R. Bennett, H. A. Patterson, C. G. Williams and J. M. Burgess of this city. They were often enthusiastically cheered, and at
the close received a vote of thanks for their efforts. The Janesville Wide Awake glee
their best songs, which were heartily applauded, and for which the club received a vote of thanks. The Milton Wide Awake, under the command of Capt. R. F. Fraser,
were out in full force, numbering about 50,
and exhibited an excellence of drill highly
commendable to their commander and
themselves. The meeting adjourned with three rousing cheers for Lincoln and Han-lin. The speakers and the glee club were then invited to his house by Joseph Goodrich, and entertained in the generous and
open-hearted style characteristic of him.
To leave nothing undone, the payment of the expenses incurred by the speakers in going and returning from the village was
proffered by the citizens.

Altogether, this meeting was just the
thing. It was right in every respect. Milton is preparing for a republican vote worthy of herself, and will do her full share toward making the largest majority ever yet
given in the county.

The common council holds its regular meeting this evening.

a lot of very fine New York apples for sale
by the barrel.

The body of George P. Arnold, son of J. E. Arnold of Milwaukee, who was lost in the Lady Elgin, was recovered at Michigan City, and buried yesterday in Milwaukee.

case of J. V. Platto vs. Dennis S. Cady, appealed from the Milwaukee circuit court, the supreme court has just decided that a conveyance by the owner of a house upon leased land, acquired by him and his family for a residence, is valid without the signature of the wife.

THE PROSPECT IN ILLINOIS.—Hon. D.
Eastman, county judge of Kane county, Ill.,
whose opportunities for obtaining political information are first rate, writing to his wife, now visiting in this city, under date of the 22d inst., says: "Of course the Badgers are rejoicing over the republican triumphs in Hosiardom and elsewhere. Say to them that Suckerdorf will do as well, or better, and that they can safely haul their hand over our intended victory."

MINNESOTA.—Here is the recapitulation of the results of the census in Minnesota: Total area of Minnesota—square miles 36,320 do population 1,000,000 do number of farms 100,000 do number of manufacturing establishments 500 do number of deaths 2,000

THE TAZEWELL COUNTY TRAGEDY.—The late murder of the wife and daughters of Mr. Orendorff, on Delavan Prairie, Tazewell county, continues to excite the popular mind of that region. The young man, O., who was arrested on suspicion last week, confessed having an accomplice named Green, residing in the neighborhood, and both the murderers are now in jail at Pekin, and the excitement among the people is so high that it is feared that they will take the scoundrels out of jail by force and lynch them.

THE PENNA. TRANSCRIPT. says the object of the murder was evidently plunder. It seems last fall, a man by the name of Green went to Indiana, and from what could be learned had no particular business there and foran acquaintance with Oit, telling him Orendorff had plenty of money and property.
A few days before the murder, Orendorff had several thousand dollars in the house, but had brought it to Peoria for safe keeping. The murderer therefore got but little money for their crime.

HORRIBLE ACCIDENT.—A correspondent of the Lexington (Tenn.) Dispatch, writing from Decaturville, in the same state under date of Oct. 14th, says:

As some negroes were passing the road leading from that place to Perryville, this morning, near Rushing's creek, they were attracted by the cries of a female, and upon examination found near the road a woman lying by the fire with her husband, both confined by a log across them. It appears that they were traveling and had stopped to camp, and had built their fire near a dead tree, which caught fire, (after they had fallen asleep), and burned off near the ground falling across them, breaking both the woman's legs just below the knee, and killing the man almost instantly. When interrogating the woman, we learned that the tree had fallen across them several hours before day, and that her husband lived long enough to tell her what to do after he was dead. She said she called until she could call no longer, for some one to come to her relief after her husband died, (not being able to extricate herself). She also stated that her maiden name was Watts, and that her husband's name was Jefferson Kelley —that they had been married about three months, and were going across Tennessee river where corn was cheaper.

When we reached the place where the unfortunate persons were, the scene was most horrible, and the cries of the poor woman when taken away from her dead husband were enough to melt the most obdurate heart.

HERBERT INGRAM'S FUNERAL.—We learn from the London correspondence of the New York World, that the funeral of the late Herbert Ingram, who was lost on the Lady Elgin, occurred on the 5th inst., at Boston, England. The scene was a remarkable one. Some eighteen or twenty thousand persons formed the funeral procession, and not a single place of business in the town was open.

The Dirge of the Doomed.

"'Tis Villains and his Dials!" There's a wall breaking forth from a giant's stronghold, As coming events are by shadows foretold,
And the dirge of the doomed is the dirge of the fallen King,
Where the "Wide Awake" ever his ragged stung.
The breezes that sing through the forests of Maine, Make the old woods re-echo a HAIL to the fair fame,
And the dirge of the doomed is the dirge of the fallen King,
Where the "Wide Awake" ever his ragged stung.
The Green Mountains State—the land of my birth, And the Bay State's glory at my "last of earth,"
And the dirge of the doomed is the dirge of the fallen King,
Where the "Wide Awake" ever his ragged stung.
The Harbors and the Straits of the old Empire State
Are laid in deep mourning, bewailing my fate;
Not my fate alone, but that of the nation,
For the dirge of the doomed is the dirge of the fallen King,
Where the "Wide Awake" ever his ragged stung.
The Buckle and the Hoe, and the old Empire State
Are laid in deep mourning, bewailing my fate;
Not my fate alone, but that of the nation,
For the dirge of the doomed is the dirge of the fallen King,
Where the "Wide Awake" ever his ragged stung.
The Harbors and the Straits of the old Empire State
Are laid in deep mourning, bewailing my fate;
Not my fate alone, but that of the nation,
For the dirge of the doomed is the dirge of the fallen King,
Where the "Wide Awake" ever his ragged stung.

MORAL.
Young men of the west! this lesson I give,
The republicans never must live;
Join the Wide Awake boys, and come at their call,
And Freedom shall perch on democracy's pall.
Then "honest old Abe" in the White House shall stay,
And democracy's war-dogs shall slink away, While the Buck, and the Hoe, and the old Empire State, From the cess-pool of ruin, shall breathe their farewell.

FORNEY ON LINCOLN'S ADMINISTRATION.
—The Philadelphia Press closes an editorial article as follows:
"If Mr. Lincoln's election is inevitable, wise and courageous statesmen should see that his administration has a fair trial; and if the apprehensions of his enemies in the south are realized, there will be but one party to put him down, and that will be the party of the Union, in every state of the Union. If these apprehensions are disappointed and disproved by his action, we shall witness such an overthrow of disunionists and secessionists as will exterminate the breed forever."

COMMERCIAL.

Janesville Wholesale Market.
Reported for the Janesville Gazette, by BUMP & GRAY,
GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS.
JANESVILLE, October 25, 1860.

The wheat market under more favorable news from the lake shore was firmer to-day, and we note a gain of 1/8c per bushel on yesterday's quotations. About 3500 bushels changed hands at 75 1/2c for the milling spring, 75c for the day shipping, and 75c for the day and grown, closing, however, rather dull at these fig-

WARRANTED DEEDS FOR SALE.

Phoenix Insurance Co. of Hartford.

We take pleasure in directing the attention of property-holders to the statement of the Phoenix Insurance Company, published in another column. This we consider one of the most reliable Insurance Companies in the country; and we think no one need have the least hesitancy in effecting an insurance in it. Their exhibit shows conclusively of its reliability. No one owning property should go without an insurance,
and to such we recommend them to call on
the agent and at once effect an insurance.
Home Journal, Ind.

Continental Insurance Company.
This prosperous corporation, in order to
just completed the purchase of the desirable property known as No. 102 Broadway
and No. 1 Pine street. Possession will be given on or before the 1st of May next,
when we learn a new and beautiful structure will at once be erected, suited to the requirements of the Company. No institution of a similar character in the nation, all things considered, can boast of such an unparalleled prosperity as can this. Commencing with a cash capital of half a million of dollars, it has steadily and rapidly
grown, until its available assets now
amount to about one million. The officers and directors are known all over the country as among the leading industrial business men and capitalists of this city. No better, safer, or stronger Insurance Com-
and grow a thousand years, and—continue
to pay fat dividends.—New York Independent.

To the Public.
"Now is the accepted time"—to-morrow
may be too late—delays are dangerous.—
Have you got a store of goods? Have you a dwelling house? Have you any insurable property? Go at once to Dimock's Agency and have it insured. Do not let the melancholy words "he had no insurance"
prove applicable to your case in event of a sweeping fire.

CREDIT.

It is greatly to the credit of any owner or occupant of a building to have placed conspicuously over his door, any of the following leading companies' house
plates. The Home of New York. The Phoenix of Hartford. The Continental of
New York. The Security of New York.
The Merchants of Hartford, or the Northern
of London, England. Is your credit at the Banks getting below par, up with one of these plates and you are all right at the Rock County, the Central or at Hort's.
Every passer by will say "there is a sound business man." Tell your New York creditors that you insure your lake freights in the reliable Old Home, and your goods after their arrival in any of these incompara-
times be filled, and at the lowest figures.
A few more of these ornamental plates left
at Dimock's Agency.

I desire to call the attention of the citizens of Janesville and Rock county, more
in detail to these well known, reliable and
prompt paying
